THE CATHOLIC DISTANCE UNIVERSITY

CDU was established in 1983 under the leadership of Bishop Thomas J. Welsh and continues today under the leadership of Bishop Paul S. Loverde, Bishop of Arlington and chairman of the CDU Board of Trustees. The mission of CDU is to "Teach All Nations," handing on the teachings of the Church through the techniques and technologies of modern distance education. CDU offers accredited online BA and MA degrees in Theology, the Catechetical Diploma, the Advanced Catechist Certificate and a variety of continuing education opportunities.

Through technology, adult learners in fifty states and over forty countries worldwide form a vibrant learning community that truly reflects the universality of the Church and the hunger for knowledge and love of God.

Gala Honorees

Founder's Award Blanche and Jacques Moore

Educated in Philadelphia's Catholic schools and universities, both Blanche and Jacques Moore have been vigorous supporters of Catholic education. Jacques joined the board of The Catholic Distance University in 1995 and dedicated his energy and resources to ensuring a successful campaign for purchasing a permanent location for CDU. Blanche joined the board in 2002 and has provided exceptional vision and leadership for CDU's growth and success.

Founder's Award Our Sunday Visitor

Our Sunday Visitor publishes six periodicals – Our Sunday Visitor Newsweekly, Take Out: Family Faith on the Go, The Catholic Answer, The Priest, My Daily Visitor, and Grace In Action – and is a well known book publisher.

Our Sunday Visitor also serves the Church by returning all of its net earnings to the Catholic community through the Our Sunday Visitor Institute, which funds Catholic projects throughout the United States, including support for The Catholic Distance University.

Bishop Thomas J. Welsh Parish Award St. Theresa Catholic Church

CDU is proud to present the first Bishop Thomas J. Welsh Parish Award to St. Theresa Catholic Church, Rev. Richard M. Guest, pastor. St. Theresa has long supported CDU's mission and encouraged its parishioners to take advantage of CDU's educational opportunities.

The award is named for the late Bishop Welsh, founder of CDU and of the Diocese of Arlington.
